

Demo Candidate's Hubby And The Pro-Trump Posts

My wife has her own logins and Internet accounts. I have no idea what she does on her phone or her computer.

My wife has her own salary, bank accounts and credit cards. Again, I have no idea how she spends some of this money.

My wife has her own political views, which sometimes differ from mine.

So it would be no surprise if Sarahnell Murphy, a candidate for Broward State Attorney, never realized what her husband was allegedly doing on Facebook.

Democratic Party activists received copies of Facebook pro-Trump and anti-Democratic posts that Murphy's husband Richard Merlino was said to be responsible for.

Murphy and Merlino didn't return calls and e-mails sent to discuss the posts. He has sealed off his Facebook page.

That makes me wonder. By Buddy Nevins, BrowardBeat.com, excerpt posted on SouthFloridaReporter.com, July 29, 2019
